

Florida Afterburn 2026 | TRANSCEND

WHO • WHAT • WHERE • WHEN

November 13–15, 2026 • Exodus Monday, November 16
Camp La Llanada • 2819 Tiger Lake Rd, Lake Wales, FL 33898

Your weekend is yours to build. Follow the music, discover a strange little piece of art, make something with your hands, get a questionable reading, or sit quietly for a while. This guide is your invitation to explore what your fellow participants are bringing to the burn.

Times are local and may shift on burner time. “Approx.” and “until gone” mean exactly that. Check with camps for changes. Bring your own cup, ask before touching people or art, and leave no trace.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Friday, Nov 13 — gates open at noon, close at 8 PM. Attendee arrival begins at 12 PM. Have your Volunteeripate event QR code saved on your phone; check-in can verify your ticket, waiver, and purchased add-ons. No printing necessary.

Saturday, Nov 14 — Effigy night. The main Effigy burn is planned for Saturday, subject to weather and fire safety clearance. Exact public burn time has not been confirmed in the submitted 2026 materials.

Sunday, Nov 15 — Temple night. A quieter, reflective burn. The precise 2026 time is not confirmed in the submitted schedules.

MONDAY • NOVEMBER 16 — EXODUS

The burn is over, and there are no scheduled events today. Pack up your camp, collect every last bit of MOOP, and be off the property by 2 PM.

One last good deed before you go: stop by the huts near RV parking to drop off leftover food, drinks, or other usable items you don't want to take home. Canned and shelf-stable foods are preferred for donation to local food pantries. Please bring only items suitable for reuse or donation.

SANCTUARY

Sometimes you just need a little space.

Burns can be a wild ride. Sometimes you need a break from the stimulation or whatever the universe just threw your way.

Sanctuary is a quiet place to land, catch your breath, and just be. Our space holders offer a listening ear, a grounded presence, and room to process whatever you're experiencing, without judgment or pressure to explain yourself.

Whether you need to talk, sit quietly, or take a moment to regroup, there's space for you here.

Sanctuary Hours:

- Friday, November 13: 6 PM – 6 AM (Saturday)
- Saturday, November 14: 6 PM – 6 AM (Sunday)
- Sunday, November 15: 6 PM – Midnight

Come as you are. We've got you.

Sanctuary is a dedicated participant support space, not a theme camp or scheduled activity. If you or someone around you needs a moment, know that it's there.

A FEW GOOD THINGS TO KNOW

Consent is the baseline. Ask before touching people, entering private spaces, photographing someone, or interacting with an installation in a way that may affect it. A yes to one thing is not a yes to everything.

Leave No Trace. MOOP is Matter Out of Place. Secure your camp, collect tiny scraps, and pack out what you bring in. No trash fairy is coming.

Fire and sound. Follow CATS instructions and established perimeters. Fire performance requires appropriate safety support. Keep noise to a dull roar after 11 PM under local restrictions.

Take care of yourself and each other. Hydrate, watch the Florida weather, respect boundaries, and ask Rangers, Medics or Sanctuary for help as needed. The lake is off-limits.

Volunteer. This burn exists because participants build it. Look for shifts and help out at https://burntoranges.volunteeripate.com/.

See you at the burn.
